

NOTES FROM THE WORKSHOP.

Since our last report we have been busy. Saturday evening, June 1, we held our communion as announced in EVANGELIST. About fifty-five or sixty surrounded the table. We had a spiritual blessing while waiting before the Lord of Lords and King of Kings. The church is well equipped for work and the servants are at work. On Wednesday afternoon previous to our communion, we baptized a young lady; also on Sunday morning after our service; on Saturday evening we had the pleasure of baptizing another. So we labor and God blessing the efforts put forth, keeps the waters trouble dand souls are finding rest in Jesus.

Last Sabbath we filled our appointment at Auburn. We met an earnest congregation. On Saturday evening at the close of the services a lady came forward and requested baptism the next day, Sabbath morning. So on Sunday morning at the close of the service we had another candidate for baptism, making two. So we made our way, with a large procession, to the water side, where the sacred rite was obeyed. The cause here is growing nicely. All are ready to do what the Master commands, and above all the opposition, they are thoroughly indoctrinated.

FROM CLAYPOOL, IND.

Brother D. A. Hopkins began a meeting at Claypool on the evening of June 6, and closed on Monday evening. On Saturday afternoon we held our quarterly business-meeting; at this meeting a brother who had been baptized at Sidney, was received in full fellowship into the church. The congregations were good considering the circumstances; a festival on Saturday night and a children's meeting Sunday evening. There were five accessions to the church. On Monday afternoon three sisters were baptized. Monday evening confirmation of the three sisters also one other sister who had been baptized before. After the confirmation service Communion services began. About forty-three communicants participated in the observance of the ordinances of the Lord's house. This was an enjoyable feast: some of the brethren and sisters from surrounding churches were present. May we live trusting in the Lord and praying that other precious souls may be brought into the fold. May God blest Brother Hopkins and the effort he puts forth everywhere, for the upbuilding of God's kingdom, is our prayer.

FROM DUNLAPS, IND.

Every thing is moving along nicely at Dunlaps. Our communion last Sunday evening was the largest we ever had. There was nearly one hundred communed. And the house was packed with spectators, and the best of order prevailed. Our K. C. is doing a good work. Also our Sabbath-school. We are praying earnestly that God will bless our labor.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. A. R. BEMENDEFER.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

A serious runaway which came very near proving fatal happened on Decoration Day of which Rev. John Duke McFaden and Irv. Foster were the victims. After the services here these two gentlemen started for Falls City and when they reached the corner near Gill Berkley's, while Rev. McFaden was reading an account in a paper of a serious runaway at Lanark, Ill., the team became suddenly frightened and began to run. They were both thrown from the buggy and Rev. McFaden was dashed upon the ground where he was afterward found in an unconscious condition. He was carried to Mr. Berkley's house and Drs. Erwin and Evans summoned who dressed his wounds and cared for him until he regained consciousness. Mr. Foster escaped with only slight injuries and is about all right. Mr. McFaden is improving and it is thought his injuries will not prove serious.

IN MEMORY OF LULU B. PASSMORE.

Sister Lulu B. Passmore died June 1, 1895, aged 23 years, 4 months and 16 days. She was the wife of George E. Passmore, daughter of brother W. C. Winn and niece of the writer.

Sister Lulu joined the Brethren church four years ago, and led an earnest, Christian life. She was an obedient, loving child, a faithful friend, and a devoted wife. Her first born child died at birth, and preceded her to the grave only twenty-four hours. She died at Keysville, in Charlotte Co., and was brought and laid to rest in her childhood's home in Lunenburg. Being greatly beloved in the community, a large concourse of friends attended her burial. Her husband and her family are prostrated with grief, but we should not sorrow as those that have no hope, for he giveth his beloved rest.

Sister, thou wert mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze;
Pleasant as the air of evening,
As it floats among the trees.

Dearest sister, thou hast left us,
Here thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God who hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

S. H. LOVE.

Matrimonial.

FAHR—PARK.—June 8, 1895, at the residence of the officiating minister, Pleasant Home, O., Mr. A. M. Fahr, of Red Haw, and Miss Reen Park, of West Salem.

Our Dead.

MARKLEY.—Elizabeth departed this life June 8, aged 80 years and 6 months. She lived a consistent Christian life many years. She was a faithful member of the Ashland city church from its organization thirteen years ago. The following is taken from the Ashland Times: Mrs. Elizabeth Markley, mention of whose serious injury was made last week, died Saturday morning at half past nine o'clock. She was too feeble at her advanced age, eighty years, to rally from the shock. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. Miller, of the Brethren church, were held at the residence of her son, Cyrus Markley, on Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Mrs. Markley, who was a most estimable woman, loved and respected by all who knew her, was one of the pioneers of the county. Her husband was an extensive land owner, his large farms adjoining Ashland on the east. The main part of her useful life was spent in this township and she leaves a wide circle of friends to mourn her death.

HOPWOOD.—May 31, 1895, at Cornell, Ill., Kittie Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hapwood, aged 4 months and 19 days. Funeral services conducted by D. Mast, from the words, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

ISABELLA MAST.

WOLFORD.—June 8, 1895, at Warsaw, Ind., Edith Fay Wolford, aged 6 years, 10 months and 29 days.

GET WHAT HE SPENT.

"No, sir, I can't trust you," said a bar-keeper to an urgent applicant for a drink. "You've spent altogether too much money for rum. If you'd drink less you might be riding in your own carriage."

"That's true!" "That's true!" replied the other. "If I'd drunk less I might be riding in my own carriage, and if you'd sold less you might be doing the driving. You've got what I spent."

GOD's place for a Christian is where he is needed most.
